

Sorry mama

I'm a thief and I do lie, but I promise i feel fine
Sorry mama, sorry dad, that my life turned out really sad
What I said and what I did when I was a little kid
Sorry mama, sorry dad, I turned out so fucking bad

Living is a struggle, but I know you wanted more
I was gonna be the one to see you through
All you ever wanted, everything you waited for
I didn't quite deliver, didn't prove myself to you
Placed inside a world of all the hate there is to see
You never will become a better you
You wish you'd never had me, 'cause I only brought you pain
What can I do...?
...sorry mama

What went wrong, what did I do, you say you never knew
Sorry mama, sorry dad, that I killed the joy you had
I became an enemy, all you hated you saw in me
Sorry mama, sorry dad, I have nothing more to add

Living is a struggle, but I know you wanted more
I was gonna be the one to see you through
All you ever wanted, everything you waited for
I didn't quite deliver, didn't prove myself to you
Placed inside a world of all the hate there is to see
You never will become a better you
You wish you'd never had me, 'cause I only brought you pain
What can I do...?
...sorry mama
